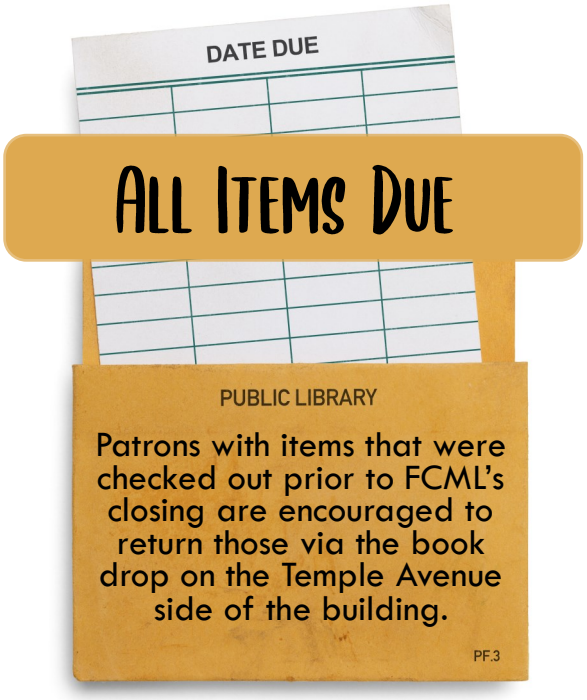
Curbside Services to Begin May 11

FCML will remain closed to the public for the time being. However, beginning Monday, May 11 FCML will offer curbside pick-up for patrons. In order to participate in curbside pick-up, you must have an existing card with. We will not issue new cards during this time. To participate in curbside pick-up, it's as easy as 1-2-3!

1) Visit our catalog online to browse available items.
2) Call us at 205-932-6625 (M-F, 11:00 AM-5:00 PM) or email jessie@fcml.org beginning Moy 11 with your requests. We will schedule a time for your pick-up.
3) When you arrive at your scheduled pick-up, call and let us know. We will bring your materials out to you.

We ask that if you have returns during curbside service, you put those in the book drop on the Temple Avenue side of the building. Our staff will not take returns directly.



Summer Reading 2020

Have you been wondering what's going to happen with FCML's 2020 Summer Reading Program? You don't have to wonder much longer!

Even though FCML is not be holding in-person programming, the staff has worked hard to keep the spirit of Summer Reading alive. You will still be able to participate in our reading challenge and annual coloring contest. Many of scheduled programs will now be watchable online, and patrons will be able to pick up Summer Reading To-Go Kits.

More information can be found in our Summer Reading2020: Imagine Your Story informational flyer that will be released on May 11 on Facebook and our website.
